Global Engagement: Rethinking Risk in the Research Enterprise

“Across partisan and other familiar dividing lines on foreign policy in the United States, there is growing recognition that rapid accumulation and projection of power on the world stage by the People’s Republic of China (PRC) constitutes the most serious of all current challenges to US national security”.

Iran Sanctions Guidance Document

“The existing U.S. sanctions imposed against Iran are the strictest ones to date…and are administered by the U.S. Department of the Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC). It is critical that faculty, staff and students wishing to travel to Iran or engage with an Iranian entity, consult with the Export Control Office prior to engaging in the activity”.

Book Recommendation

“The Scientist and the Spy: A True Story of China, the FBI, and Industrial Espionage”

“In September 2011, sheriff’s deputies in Iowa encountered three ethnic Chinese men near a field where a farmer was growing corn seed under contract with Monsanto. What began as a simple trespassing inquiry mushroomed into a two-year FBI operation in which investigators bugged the men’s rental cars, used a warrant intended for foreign terrorists and spies, and flew surveillance planes over corn country—all in the name of protecting trade secrets of corporate giants Monsanto and DuPont Pioneer”.

“THE DAILY BUGLE” QUOTES

“Sticks and stones may break my bones, but words will never hurt me”

Alexander William Kinglake in his Eothen (written 1830, published in London, John Ollivier, 1844) used “golden sticks and stones”. It is reported to have appeared in The Christian Recorder of March 1862, a publication of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

“Nothing gives one person so much advantage over another as to remain always cool and unruffled under all circumstances.”

Letter of Jefferson to his grandson, Francis Eppes, dated May 21, 1816, and is found in vol. 19, page 241.

“…the man who never looks into a newspaper is better informed than he who reads them; inasmuch as he who knows nothing is nearer to truth than he whose mind is filled with falsehoods & errors.”
